

*Excellence takes time.
Perfection?
About 60 years.*

Daniele Perazzi

1957 saw the birth of a gun factory bearing the name of its founder, Daniele Perazzi. 60 years later his name is renowned the world over and is synonymous with the creation of some of the finest trap, skeet and game guns on the planet. During that time advancements in technology have found their place in the manufacturing process but the bespoke, hand crafted, artisan approach he pioneered remains at its heart. Which explains why excellence takes time and perfection a little longer.
